DEPARTMENT: PHILOSOPHY

TOPIC: “THE TEACHING OF BUDDHA IN PRACTICAL LIFE”

COURSE OBJECTIVE: Lord Buddha attained “Enlightenment” under the Bodhi tree. After attaining niravana Buddha became a figure proving the wisdom he attained and helped billions of people to end their suffering and attaining the state of Nirvana.

The objective of the course is spiritual upliftment of the students by way of Yoga and Meditation as well as following the middle path of Lord Buddha.

COURSE OUTCOMES: The present society is more and more competitive time. Specially students are running the race to attain highest marks. Some students are suffering from depression. Most of students have lack of confidence and have no proper knowledge how to live their life, how to love themselves. Love yourself is the beginning of knowledge. But when we follow teaching of Buddha intuitively specially four noble truths, eight-fold path helps us to control things and get attached to them, that freedom from suffering is nirvana. Nirvana is state in life of letting go all desire and that this is attained through the eightfold path. The eight aspects in which one must practice are right views, right intention to free oneself from attachment, ignorance and hatefulness, right speech not be harmful and abstaining from lying gossiping. Right mindfulness to overcome every negativity effect, and right concentration to achieve a higher state of consciousness.
